"May not be a very big world
 but enough room for you and me
 If you don't want me hanging around
 then get out of my tree
 If you want to live forever - that's sick, but that's okay
 I have my own agenda so stay out of my way"

Vol. 6 © 2009 Walker Caine Music

Ride Safe and enjoy the road! There are a lot of good people out there... I depend on it!

Shameless self-promotion time:

Walker Caine music can be found on all the major download sites and many retail outlets. You can also visit our online store.

There is always new music being worked on and both band and solo tours happening from time to time. I've been truly fortunate with all the bands that have volunteered to do backups at many shows - it's a great formula for some wild fun!

Otherwise I'm always out riding... Wave, honk, holler, and just come up and say 'hi'. It's people like you that keep me going!

Support the good folk who look out for me...

If you need another one of these booklets, write to MLA Records with your request or visit the contact page. If you need a whole bunch, glad to do it but we'll charge you for printing.

When it comes to road trips, Walker Caine has gotten lost everywhere riding over 15,000 miles every year on the nation's backroads. He's an advocate for Music Education and a UNICEF supporter along with other causes ... pretty much anything that happens to piss him off.

Legally disabled from back injuries, the show goes on with dozens of appearances throughout the country every year. He's one of the few who actually has been there, done that, and will probably do it again.

...the road never ends.

Walkers' words of wisdom for the ride include:

1. Know what State you're in; it's easy to forget
2. See #1 - need a helmet?
3. Always remember where you left your guitar
4. Know how old your new friend is (honest Officer, I figured she was 21!)
5. Remember to eat and sleep
6. Don't ride if you can't walk straight
7. Police are usually pretty cool if you are
8. Slow down and enjoy the ride!
